How To Use Our Study Journal

A basic guide to having a quality quiet time with God.

Introduction

Christianity isn't about church attendance or charitable service. It's about being impacted by the love of God so that we come to share in His character and thereby make known His greatness. However, since people struggle to truly experience the love of God, they often try to live the Christian life without having the power to do so. This results in dead church attendance, attempts to settle a guilty conscience, or trying to fill emptiness by doing good to others. God never intended for us to live without His power moving us to obey Him and this is why we have created our study journal.

Our study journal is a guide to help you connect with God each day so that you can get charged to go out into the world and live the life you have been called to in Jesus. We have harnessed what many believers have learned over centuries and compiled it into our journal. Each day our journal will guide you to God's throne of grace where you can receive the wisdom and strength that produces the reflection of God's nature in you.

Pursuit

In James 4:7-8 we are instructed on how to approach God's throne: "Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw near to God, and He will draw near to you..." James explains that we must yield our hearts to God and turn away from the lies of the Devil. Then we are to pursue God and He will come to meet with us. Jeremiah prophesies about the type of pursuit God desires from us when God speaks through him saying, "And you shall seek me, and find me, when you shall search for me with all your heart" (Jeremiah 29:13). There is no better place to whole-heartedly search for God than in every word of the Bible. Our study journal will guide your pursuit of God through the whole Bible over the course of two years and each day God will come to reveal what He is speaking to you through its words.

Pondering

Paul tells us, "Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things" (Philippians 4:8). Nothing fits this description more than the words of the Bible. Thinking and meditating on truth from the Bible brings our perspective of the world in line with the way God sees it. "Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect" (Romans 12:2). When we change our minds and start thinking like God, we begin to respond to the world the same way as Him. Each day our study journal will provide you with open-ended questions that will cause you to think about what God is speaking to you. As you ponder what God is teaching you, our journal helps you to solidify what you are learning by giving you space to write it down.

Prayer

Jesus tells us, "Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened" (Matthew 7:7-8). Each day we encourage you to pray about what is going on in your life and the things you are reading in the Bible. James tells us, "If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives generously to all without reproach, and it will be given him" (James 1:5). Prayer is a two way conversation with God and Paul encourages us to pay attention while we pray (Colossians 4:2). As you immerse yourself in the Bible, God will bring back its words to answer the questions you ask Him (John 15:7). Each day we encourage you to write down notes about your time in prayer so you can see God's faithfulness as you ask and receive from Him.

Practice

All too often people want Jesus to follow them and ask God to be with them while they build their own kingdom. However, God is calling each of us to "deny ourselves, take up our cross, and follow Him" (Luke 9:23). As you learn the heart of God by reading, meditating, and praying you will begin to see what God is doing around you personally and in your community. Our journal encourages you to consider what God is already doing and write down how you plan to join in and follow Him.

Honor and Thanksgiving

No discussion about walking with God can be complete without pointing out the need to honor Him and give Him thanks. Paul teaches us, "For although they knew God, they did not honor Him as God or give thanks to Him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened" (Romans 1:21). Nothing will blind our eyes to the truth and shut up the heavens faster than neglecting these two things. Honoring God as God means we recognize His position and respond to it appropriately. Thankfulness toward God is the union of humility and faith. To be thankful, we must often humbly acknowledge that what we want is not the best that God has for us. We must yield in faith, trusting that God knows what is best. In this place of confidence in Him, we can "give thanks in every circumstance" (Ephesians 5:20). Without approaching God in honor and thanksgiving, any attempt to pursue God will be a hopeless endeavor.

Conclusion

If you only read the Bible, its impact on your life will likely be minimal. In fact, you will probably get busy with other things and eventually stop. Nevertheless, if you take the time to consider the Bible's words and pray about what God is teaching you, your life will be radically altered forever. Using our study journal will help you digest the word of God and from it receive the sustaining life that will empower you to reflect the nature of God to a dark world. We encourage you to do this study with at least one other person. Please take some time and invite people to join your journey through the Bible.
